EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Abstract,

line 1, "the present invention provides" has been deleted.

Line 1, before "capless", "a" has been substituted with "A".

Line 3, after "housed position", --is provided-- has been added.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art of record alone or in combination teaches a capless holding device comprising a cylinder including a tip opening out of which a tip of a medium is located at a projected position to be projected and a housing section for sealing the tip of the medium located at the housed position; a rotor connected to the cylinder so as to relatively rotatively movable; an engaging projection provided on the medium; a cam groove formed on the rotor to guide the engaging projection forward and backward in unison with rotation of the rotor, wherein a guide groove is formed on the cylinder to guide the engaging projection in a rotating direction, and the cam groove, the guide groove and the engaging projection cooperate with one another in retracting the medium from the projected position, rotating the medium, and then advancing the medium to the housed
